CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

It is the policy of the West Linn-Wilsonville School District to employ only those certified staff members who have stayed current with relevant developments in their area of professional practice. The district will administer a comprehensive professional development program consisting of the following components:

1. A tuition reimbursement program funded and managed under the terms of the collective bargaining agreement.
2. A professional development program funded and managed under the terms of the collective bargaining agreement.
3. The filing of a professional growth plan by every certificated employee to ensure their continuing professional development.
