Announcement

At the opening of the last school year a bulletin, announcing the courses to be offered, was sent out to the prospective students. This pamphlet was so graciously received by patrons and students that it was decided to issue another this year. In order that the social side of student life might be better portrayed a number of pictures have been added. In order that the students would realize that this is the origin of a book that is to become an annual affair a name was adopted by the Senior Class, and henceforth instead of a little bulletin it will be the aim of the West Linn Union High School to issue an annual that will set forth school life as it occurs from day to day. To the many progressive business firms who have made this book possible by giving us advertising we wish to announce that we will reciprocate by seeing that they are given first consideration when it comes time for us to buy articles which they have for sale.

To the general public, and more particularly, the patrons of the school the management wishes to state that he has greatly appreciated their well wishes. Although we have had many handicaps during the past year as far as a school home was concerned; yet we feel that what measure of success as has been attained is largely due to the fact that every one in the community has been a strong and consistent booster. Without their aid and encouraging remarks I fear that we would have become sadly discouraged many times. Now, however, we feel that the worst is over, and with a new building fully equipped with the most modern apparatus, with a full corp of teachers selected for the coming year, and with the brightest prospects for the largest enrollment in the history of the school we have naught but a rosy picture to look upon. We are proud of the record we have made during the past year although we had but a small student body, yet we have demonstrated that it is not numbers that count; rather is it the quality of the students that make up the school. We hope that in the coming year we will progress as much in proportion as we have during the one past; and that the future of Union High may continue as its past.

To the Crown-Willamette Pulp and Paper Co. we wish to extend our thanks for the many prizes which they have offered our students in the various contests which have been held during the year. We also realize that it is this company that has made possible the splendid school which we now enjoy, also they are the means of bringing many new students into our schools. Their great mills offer employment to hundreds of men, and these in turn bring their families to our little city and place the children in our schools. It greatly encourages us to know that the management of the mills believe that there is nothing too good in the line of education for the children of their employees. It is cooperation of this kind that makes of any project a success.

Finally to the board of Education of the Union High School we wish to say that never have we seen a board of education that has the interest of the school at heart more than they have. Whenever there has been a demand on their time they have given of it unstintingly and generously. The patrons of the school may congratulate themselves on having selected such an efficient set of men to act as officials. Of the teachers, I am glad to be able to say that they have cooperated whole-heartedly in the work from beginning to end; they have been enthusiastic in school work and student activities. Much of the success of the school year has been due to their untiring efforts. All will attend summer school this year in order that they may enter the school rooms this fall with the very latest ideas along their respective lines.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

UNION HIGH SCHOOL
DIST. No. 3

C. B. WILLSON, Pres.

F. A. HAMMERLEE

The patrons of Union High School are justly proud of the work of their Board of Education. The Board have shown themselves to be broad minded men, and have the best interests of the school at heart at all times. Through their desire to see a standard high school built up is largely due the present achievement.

THE FACULTY OF U. H. S.

J. L. GARY, Principal
A. B. Willamette University

Mr. Gary took charge of the Union High School, while it was in the temporary quarters, pending the completion of the new building. Under his direction the school has seen many improvements made, and a close harmony has grown up between the patrons and the school. Due to the fine cooperation of all the teachers, the school work for the year has been every satisfactory.

This will be Miss Gleason's third year in the school. She has built up a strong, efficient and practical department. Many of the girls in her classes have been taught so carefully that they have been able to make their own clothing for school wear. During the coming year the Domestic Science class will conduct a cafeteria for the students.

MISS MINERVA GLEASON

MISS VESTA LAMB

With the opening of school, Miss Lamb will begin her fourth year in West Linn, she will have charge of the Foreign Languages this year; and it is quite probable that there will be many register for the Spanish course which will be instituted this school year. Miss Lamb's work during the past year has been very heavy, but she has handled it very credibly. Her beginning Latin students, say, "We didn't know Latin could be made so enjoyable."

Senior Class Advisor

"What man has done, woman can do" is the modern version of the old proverb. Miss Leathers has had a remarkably successful year in the Manual Arts Department. Her students have done work of the most practical kind. All the benches for the new shop were made by the students. She has won the affection of all the girls in school with her ardent enthusiasm for athletics for girls. She has developed a good orchestra during the past year that has furnished music on many occasions.

Freshman Class Advisor

MISS HELEN LEATHERS

MISS JANE LINDSEY

Miss Lindsey has been the instigator of many good school programs during the school year, selecting members from her dramatics class. In addition to handling the English Department, she has also directed the Glee club. She is very enthusiastic, and puts enthusiasm into her class work.

Sophomore Class Advisor

Miss Mace, who has charge of the History Department, also physical training for girls, has been untiring in her efforts to aid the students. Her work as Librarian has been of great help to students in search of reference material. She is never too tired to help in arranging student activities. Her influence on the young ladies is of the kind that develops true womanhood.

Junior Class Advisor

MISS DORRIS MACE

R. L. SOUTHWICK

Mr. Southwick comes to our high school from Topeka, Kansas, where he formerly taught in a business college. He will have charge of the Commercial department; he is well qualified for the position as he has had practical experience as a public accountant. He will assist in coaching athletic teams.

MR. C. SHIELDS

Mr. Shields, who will have charge of the grounds and building, has been an enthusiastic supporter of the new high school. He will have charge of the laying out of the grounds and will be the caretaker of the building. A better qualified man would be hard to find.

CONCERNING REGISTRATION AND COURSES

1. Students may register the week before school opens; the principal will be glad to talk over courses that you may desire to take. By registering early students will have a better opportunity to consider what they wish to take; also to secure text-books before the supply is gone.

2. The aim of The West Linn Union High School will be quality of scholarship. Courses offered will permit graduates to enter any college direct. Students, who plan to enter colleges offering professional work, should secure a catalog from that institution and consult with the principal before registering, in order that the required course may be assigned.

3. Thirty-two credits are required for graduation. A semester's work in all subjects that require one period per day for recitation, and one period for study counts as one credit.

4. Two credits may be earned by students taking part in high school activities, such as: Debate; Oratory; Music; Editor of Student Publication; Dramatics. The value of each activity to be determined by the faculty.

5. Courses of Study—There are five courses, as follows:

(I) College Preparatory Course; arranged for those students who plan to attend college, in which 23 credits are required, 9 are elective.

(II) General Course: arranged for those students who have not decided upon their future line of work. In this course 18 credits are required, and 14 are elective.

(III) Industrial Arts, or Scientific Course; arranged for students who desire to specialize in Industrial Arts, or Home Economics. In this course 24 credits are required, and 8 are elective.

(IV) Commercial Course: arranged for students who plan to enter the business world. In this 24 credits are required, and 8 are elective.

(V) Teachers Training Course: for those students who plan to enter teaching as a profession. In this course 24 credits are required, and 8 are elective.

6. All students should take four subjects each semester, and they should be taken in their proper sequence. Students desiring to take less than four subjects should consult the principal, who will allow them to do so if adequate reasons seem to justify it.

Five, or more, subjects may be taken when, in the judgment of the principal it seems best: provided that the student has made an average of 85 per cent in all subjects taken the previous semester.

7. In the arrangement of the courses of study listed herein, it is possible for a student to select almost any course and enter college, provided he makes the proper choice of his electives.

8. Beginning with this year, English will be required of all students during their entire high school course; but when, in the judgment of the principal and the head of the English Department, it is advisable to repeat an English subject pupils will be allowed to graduate with less than 8 English credits, provided they have credits in English from I to VI inclusive.

9. Social Science will be required of all pupils in their Senior year, in those courses in which 4 credits in Social Science are required.

10. The system of grading used in the West Linn High School is as follows:

A. 95 to 100 per cent	A- 90 to 95 per cent
B. 85 to 90 per cent	B- 80 to 85 per cent
C. 75 to 80 per cent	F Failed

Students who maintain a general average of B in all of their subjects during the semester and do not have an unexcused absence or tardy mark, will be exempted from the semester exams.

Students having an average of A- in any one subject for the semester, with no unexcused absence or tardy marks, will be exempted from semester examinations.

11. A laboratory fee of 50 cents per semester will be charged all students registering for chemistry. A breakage deposit of $1.50 will also be required; this sum will be refunded to the student at the end of the year if he has not broken any laboratory apparatus. Breakage will be charged to the deposit.

12. Complete equipment has been secured and installed for the manual training department, so that a thorough course in wood-working will be offered this year.

13. An orchestra has been organized by Miss Leathers and will practice regularly during the coming year, credit will be given to those students, who in the opinion of the orchestra director have done sufficient work to entitle them to credit.

STUDENT BODY DOINGS OF THE YEAR

EARL MOOTRY
President of Student Body

Earl Mootry, Pres. of the Student Body is well qualified for the position. He has taken an active part personally in all student activities, and has given much of his time to see that things have come out successfully.

In spite of the main difficulties experienced this year, the student body was materially increased at the beginning of the year. Through the good efforts of Mr. Gary, the student body has become an organization, which binds the entire school together as a unit. During the year the student body has introduced many new customs, at the same time it has branched out in all the old lines. An athletic council has recently been organized, which will decide the letters for events in order that the students may have an incentive in addition to school patriotism. Letters were awarded to a number of students for their part in student activities for the present year.

Many good times have been enjoyed by the student body. Hallowe'en night was the scene of a brilliant costume party for the initiation of the Freshmen. This spring the entire student body enjoyed a tramp and picnic, near the Clackamas fish hatchery. It was an event which will always be remembered with pleasure.

Although we feel this year a particularly successful one from every standpoint, yet we are looking forward to the coming year with great anticipation, feeling sure that it will far exceed this one in every way. With the return of all the present students except the Senior class, and with the expectation of a large Freshman class, we expect to break our present record. As a student body we wish to thank the teachers one and all for their never-failing efforts which have made the Student Body what it is.

CLASS HISTORY

On a warm September day in 1916 twenty little Freshmen ascended the step of the Willamette Grade School into the High School department, very much frightened at the thought of entering into this desired place. We had admired the members of the High School from afar off and for several years had looked eagerly forward to being enrolled in the student body. School went along smoothly for over a month, with all of us busy in solving the mysteries of Latin, Algebra and all of the other studies and trying to get to the right class at the right time. One day at the close of school the principal announced that every body except the Freshmen should stay for a meeting. All the Freshmen filed out with their hearts in their mouths for we had been looking for some sort of initiation and now felt sure something was to happen, but what this something was to be was kept secret until the following Friday, when we were given an invitation to a reception, given to us by the upper classmen. This we attended and enjoyed very much. In fact, after we left we felt ourselves thoroughly initiated into High School.

Our second year began with more High School spirit and assurance than the first for we were no longer bashful little Freshmen, but Sophomores and felt very proud of ourselves. Our Sophomore class was increased by a few more members Leonard Swartz, Anna McLarty and Juanita Clapp. In fact we had such a large class that we equalled in number the Freshmen, Juniors, and Seniors. We were quite elated and were given a room to ourselves under the instructor, Miss Lamb.

We entered our Junior year with a decrease in our number being reduced to but seven members. Due to war conditions there were very few social functions that year, and our time outside of school was taken up in making candy for the soldiers and sending clothes and food to the starving people of Europe. Just before the close of school we gave the annual send-off to the Seniors.

Our Senior year was opened with a loud applause when our new principal entered the assembly room. At first we were quite disappointed to learn that we were not to enter the new building which was being erected at West Linn, but the students of the West Linn Union High School were easily pleased and were satisfied with all things. We moved into the gymnasium where we had a little more room, also a little more noise, but our teachers kept telling us daily this was a good time to learn to concentrate.

The board of education has been extremely generous to us this year and we are very glad to have been able to use the new Stradivara, a picture machine, a piano, new books, and various other Equipments for the other departments.

Two members of our class Veda Andrews and Helene Fromong helped in winning the girls drill Banner at Gladstone Park. But the thing of which we are most proud is that we, the class of 1920, are the first class to graduate from the new West Linn Union High School.

IVA BORLAND

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of West Linn Union High School, State of Oregon, County of Clackamas and City of West Linn, being sound of mind and deposing memory do hereby make, declare, ordain and publish this to be our last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former wills, bequests and devises of whatever nature by us made.

First, we leave to the Faculty our gratitude for their patience and willingness to help us in our work; relief from future worries, with the hope that future classes will be less troublesome.

Second, We give, devise and bequeath to the Student Body the beautiful new High School building.

Third, To the Juniors, our noteworthy successors, we bequeath all the surplus knowledge, which has been crammed into us; our privilege of advising the faculty members and executors of our last Will and Testament.

Fourth, To the Sophomores, we leave the great privilege of taming the Freshmen or the on-coming class of next year.

Fifth, To the Freshmen, we leave our collection of notebooks, which are filled with wisdom and learning, also the hope that they may not lose themselves in the cogs and machinery of education.

Sixth, To the future Chemistry Class of next year, we leave all the unpaid bills, which were derived from the careless usage of laboratory apparatus and material.

Seventh, To the English VIII Class of next year, we leave all orations and stories written by us to be used as models only.

In witness Whereof, We have hereunto set our hands and seal, this tenth day of June, A. D. nineteen hundred and twenty.

CLASS PROPHECY

The wind without was blowing fitfully, and the rain fell on the windows unceasingly, "How glad I am," I thought to myself; as I glanced out of the window" that I can sit by my fireside tonight.

My thoughts wandered idly over the years that lay behind me, and indeed, so deep was my reverie that I heard no movement in the house, and rose with a start when my maid appeared, closely followed by a lady clothed in wonderful furs. "A lady to see you", said the maid and disappeared. A moments glance and our recognition was mutual. "Helene Fromong, where did you come from. "Why Opal I didn't know you lived near here, I haven't seen you since we graduated from high school at West Linn, Oregon, on—let me see—how many years—fifteen, it doesn't seem possible. "Helene do take off your wraps and come over to the fire. I haven't seen any one from Oregon for so long that I have a thousand things to say I exclaimed. "Well, perhaps I had better tell you why I came to stop here, Helene continued. "The storm was so bad that my driver and mechanic got lodging at the aviation field and I was told that as the hotel was so far away, I might find lodging here for the night. "Oh, I'm so glad that you stopped here, for I have often wondered about you, I responded. "What have you been doing since we last met.

"Well, after we graduated," Helene continued, "the following summer I attended Normal and took up Dramatic work, and now I have become a noted Dramatist and have given dramatic readings in all parts of the world.

At my first entertainment that I was to give in Paris, France, I went a few days before to select a dress for the special occasion at the famous style shop in that city, and whom do you think I saw?" "I haven't any idea," I responded. "Well, do you remember Iva Borland, who graduated out of high school when we did. She has become the greatest designer of the world, and now owns one of the most exclusive style shops in Paris.

Then after the entertainment was over, I was called upon to entertain the sick patients at a hospital in England. I met many of the nurses and of them one especially, appealed to me. I studied her face and to my surprise I recognized her as my old classmate, Veda Andrus.

"Helene," I asked, "Have you met any other friends of ours in Oregon?" she replied, "Yes, I have met many, but there is one particular friend I want to tell you of. I was tired of my line of work and decided to take a little vacation so I flew in my aeroplane to visit my old home in Willamette. Looking across from my home I sighted the dearest little bungalow, that had been built recently. It looked so inviting that I decided to ask to rest there. I ascended the steps and rang the bell. A dear little woman responded. She looked familiar. Then I recognized her. Who was it but our old classmate, Clara Junkens, formerly Clara Costley.

Helene then told of her own past experiences and said that after leaving me she would make a tour to China.

After she had departed, I thought about my old classmates and was left with the thought that the class of 1920 had turned out to be the happiest class that ever graduated from the West Linn Union High School.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

"A SCRAP OF PAPER"

The Senior class play, "A Scrap of Paper" was a great success, playing to a full house on the evening of June 4th, in the new high school auditorium. The play was a French drama, and the setting was taken from Aristocratic French life of the 18th century. The plot developed about a mysterious love letter which was lost and found several times, only to be lost again at the psychological moment. The cast was well fitted for the parts which they took, and acted their roles far better than is customary for high school Thespians.

The proceeds of the play will be used by the Seniors in purchasing books for the library. This will constitute the Senior's gift to the school.

A great deal of credit is due Miss Jane Lindsey, who directed it, also to Miss Vesta Lamb, Senior class advisor, who managed it.

The role of characters were taken by the following:

JUNIOR CLASS

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

The Junior Class members have accomplished several definite things during this year. At the beginning of the year all friendships were renewed and new ones made, but now at the end of the year they find that the class having worked together for another nine months, is a much closer unit than ever before. Its members have been prominent in all school activities.

A party to be given February 14 was planned in honor of the Senior class. However, on account of a flu epidemic the invitations were called in. In its place the class of '21 gave a banquet for the Seniors at the new high school building. The decorations were in pink and gray, the colors of the Senior class.

The Junior class had charge of all commencement decorations. It also had a good stunt for class day June 8, 1920. While this year has been enjoyed by all, the class is looking forward to next year when it hopes to do even larger things than it has thus far.

The Junior class is proud of its class advisor, Miss Doris Mace. She has at all times helped us in planning good times, and has given us wise council at times when it was needed.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

The Sophomore class is liked by all. Are we? We hope so. But then, ask the Freshmen.

We started with our motto: Our Aim Success: Our Hope to Win, which we hope will remain with us.

Speaking of our taste, do you not think lavender and cream the grandest of colors?

On account of our ignorance we did not organize during our Freshman year. But are glad to say we started our Sophomore year knowing a little more about High School electing the following officers: President, Florence Morgan; vice-president, Lucy Spatz; secretary, Blanche Junken; treasurer, Orilla Oliver, with Miss Lindsey as our advisor.

On account of the "flu" we were not welcomed into High School as most Freshmen are, hence the elaborate reception which we gave to this year's Freshman class to make up for it.

We have passed a very quiet year, not much has happened, on account of our temporary quarters. But the one day we showed our colors was "stunt day." The poor Freshmen sat with mouths wide open, eyes almost popping out of their heads, and looking at one another, wondering what was coming off next, by those "despised Sophs."

The most popular Sophomore subject is English. Oh, how interested we get, and Oh, we swell with pride to hear Miss Lindsey say, "You are the best yet." We Sophomores are noted for our brightness.

Our class has somewhat diminished. When we entered as Freshmen we had twenty members. Now, we have only sixteen, counting new pupils, who have since entered. Maybe Freshman life was too hard for them. But those who remain are keeping our motto: Our Aim Success: Our Hope to Win.

FLORENCE MORGAN

FRESHMAN CLASS

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

The Freshman class of 1920 is composed of about twenty-five rookies. They started out with the idea of being badly abused but soon changed their minds when they found out they greatly out-numbered the upper classmen. In basket ball they made a very fine showing when they defeated their worthy foes, the upper classmen, while the regular basket ball team claims three Freshmen.

During the first semester they successfully planned and carried out a very unique stunt day, thereby leading all other classes.

On Wednesday afternoon, June 9th, the Freshman class held a very enjoyable picnic at Magones Park on the Willamette river, accompanied by their class advisor. They reported a "high time" to their many envious friends.

One of the most interesting "stunts" on class day was presented by the Freshmen class, it being a farce on the 1920 graduating class. Their diplomas were presented by Mr. Shadle, alias Wesley Carroll.

Four of the Freshmen boys were members of the baseball team which made such a promising showing this season, and Margaret Pepoon, Willamette, fifteen point winner is a member of the Freshman class. Five Freshman girls were members of the club swinging team which won the banner at the 1920 track meet.

ATHLETICS

This being our first year to participate in inter-scholastic athletics, we were new at the game—but feel that we have learned a great deal. We did not have a football team last year, but are planning to have one this fall. Our new athletic field will be one of the best in the state, and we hope to have a good football team to initiate it.

During basket ball season we organized a team and had several games with various independent basket ball teams. All of the boys turned out and learned the game and a good time was had. Our new gymnasium has ample room for a basket ball court, and all of the boys will be ready to put on their "togs" when the season rolls around again. The girls played several inter-class games, and became quite proficient basket tossers. Our first baseball team played several games. In the inter-scholastic league we lost to Canby, Oregon City, and Milwaukie; we were good losers however and hope that another year they will have the opportunity of being the losers to us.

In track work, the girls shone for West Linn Union High. They won third place in the county track meet at Gladstone, May 8, in competition with the other high schools of the county. We consider this exceptional, inasmuch, as the other high schools had boys teams contesting for first honors.

Another thing for which we are proud of our girls is the fact that they won the first honors as the best physical trained club at the track meet; twelve of the girls swung indian clubs. The prize was a large banner.

Tennis attracted a great deal of attention during the first semester, but excessive rain and too many other things to do prevented much being done during the second semester. When the new cement tennis court is completed, and it will undoubtedly be ready for use by September, we hope to arrange tennis matches with other high schools.

Volley ball has been a very popular game for both the boys and the girls and it will be renewed again this fall. Indoor baseball held the attention of most of the girls during the last two months of school and several home runs were scored.

In our new gymnasium will be found the latest equipment for gymnastic training. We all enjoyed the compulsory physical training after we got used to it, although it did seem like strenuous work on some of the warm days last spring.

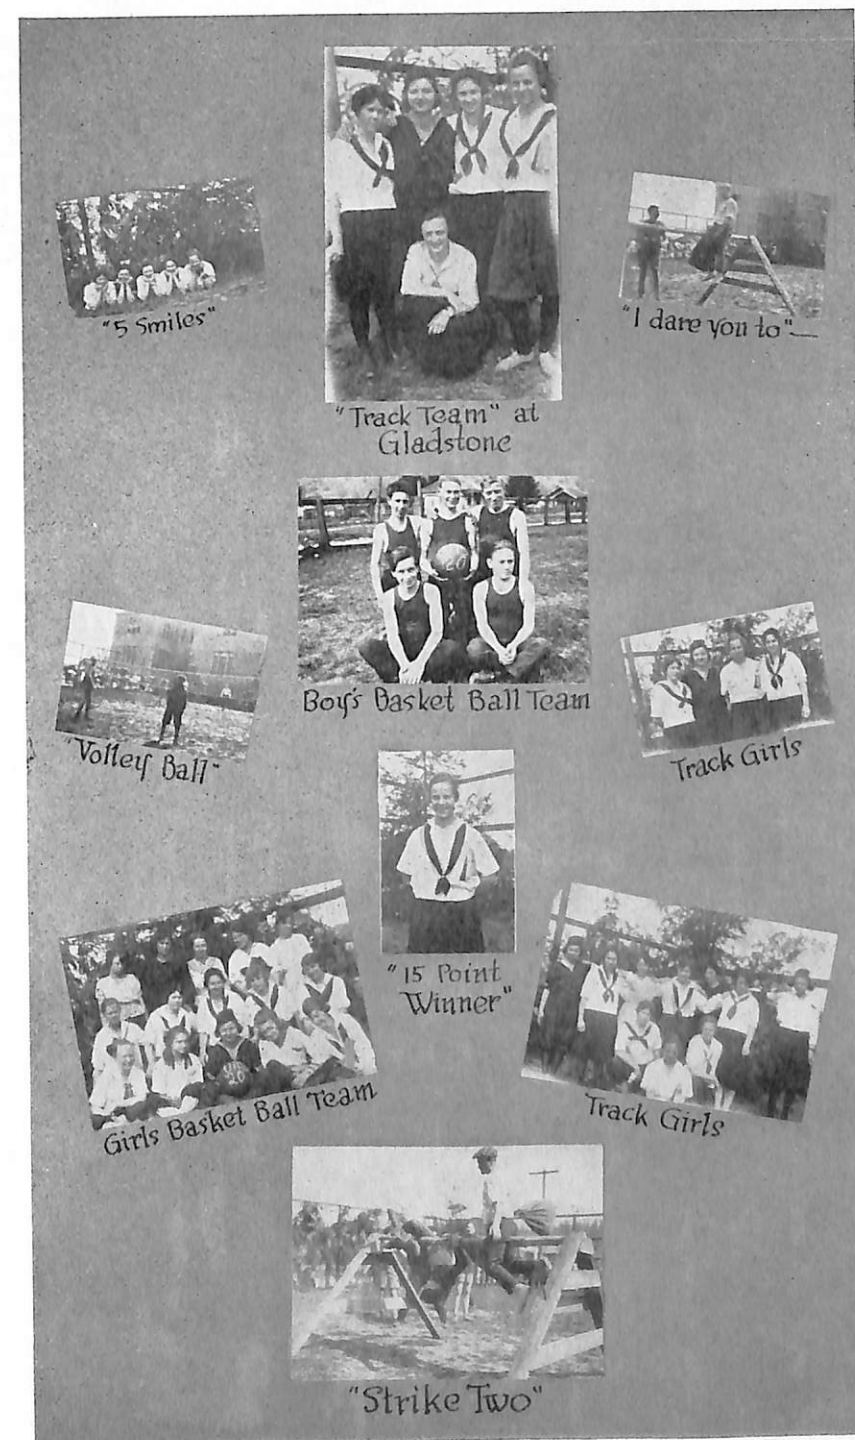

We hope that the rumor, concerning a swimming tank, is true. It would be greatly appreciated by all students if a swimming tank were secured.

OFFICIAL W. L. CLUB

The students, who have won letters, for participation in inter-scholastic events, during the past year, met and organized a club during the last week of school. This club will be known as the W. L. Club; its purpose will be to stimulate interest in school activities. Only those who have won letters will be eligible for membership. Those who are members of the club at the present time are:

Earl Mootry, George Paterson, George Pepoon, Gordon Hammerle, Elwood Thompson won letters in baseball. Margaret Pepoon won her letter in track work and Helene Fromong won her letter in Oratory.

Letters in baseball were awarded to all boys who had played three-fourths of the actual playing time in all games. Margaret Pepoon was awarded her letter for winning fifteen points in the Clackamas County track meet. Helene Fromong won first place in the Clackamas County Oratorical contest.

OUR ALUMNI

CLASS OF '17

 Woolfolk, Marvin, attending University of Oregon.

CLASS OF '18

Courtney, Henry, working in Oregon City.
 Michels, Matilda, bookkeeper in Crown Willamette Office.

CLASS OF '19

Barnes, Terry, working as surveyor.
 Moser, Esther, attending Oregon Normal School.
 Paterson, Marion, attending Albany College.
 Snidow, Harriet, attending Oregon Agricultural College.
 Tiedeman, Veva, attending Oregon Normal School.

ALUMNI PLAN TO ORGANIZE

Misses Harriet Snidow and Marion Paterson members of the class of '19 have suggested the idea that those who have graduated from the Union High school get together and form a permanent organization. The Senior class of 1920 are heartily in favor of this idea and will call a meeting sometime during the summer for the purpose of forming such an organization.

The Alumni are the greatest boosters for a school; a great deal of sentiment attaches itself to Alma Mater; and they are anxious to see it progress.

Graduation!

What an epoch it marks in the life of the young man or woman!

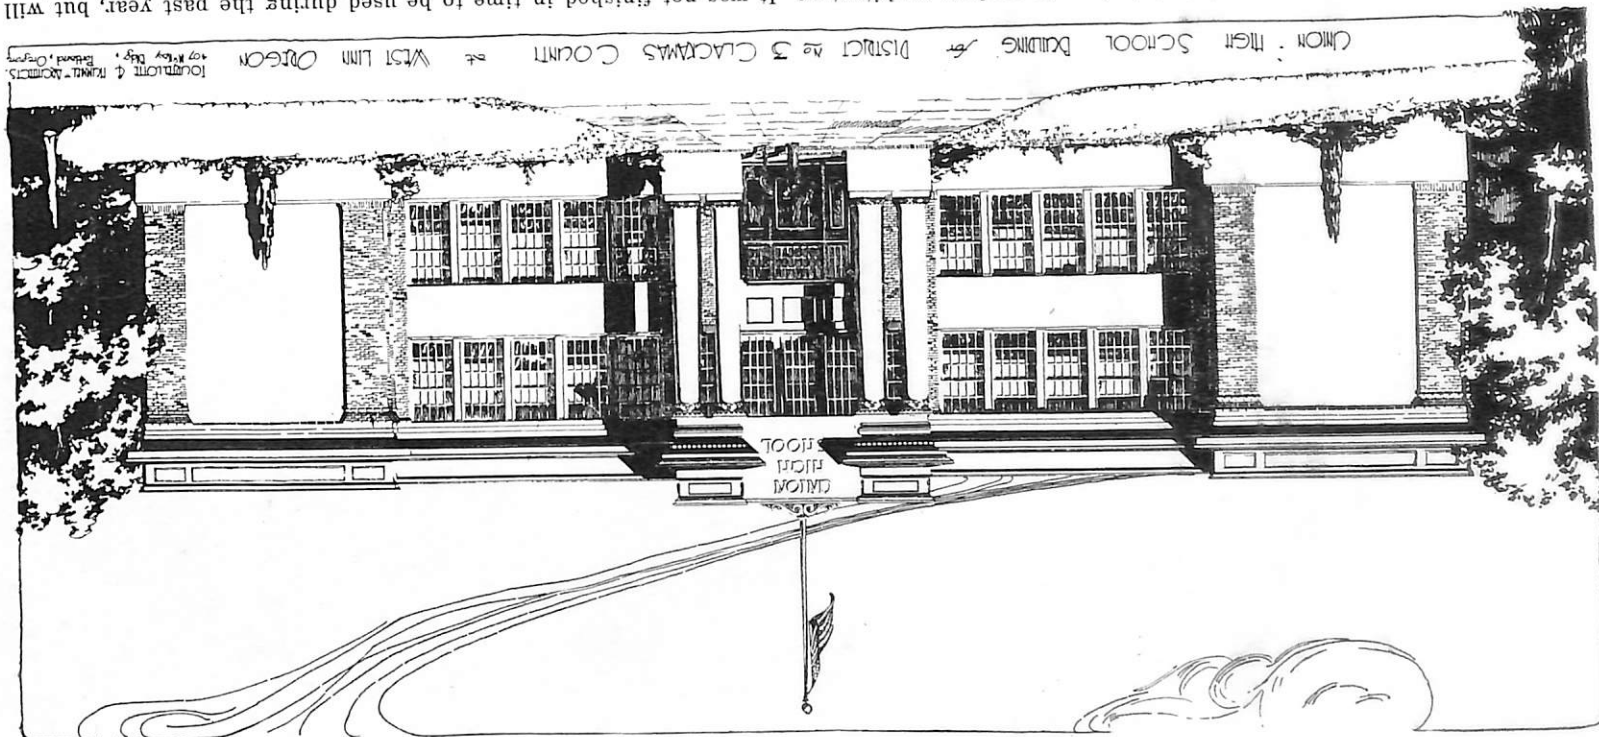

It is the end—and the beginning. Laying aside school books perhaps forever, the student steps forth from the class room—into the world, into the hustle and bustle of business life.

Let us hope that in your business life you will retain all the honesty, high ideals and good fellowship that have made your graduation the happy event that it has been.

THIS building is one of the latest designs in modern architecture. It was not finished in time to be used during the past year, but will be ready in every respect for the opening of school on September 13th. Many improvements have been added since the original plans were drawn up and all have added greatly to the beauty of the building. A large athletic field has been laid off in the rear of the building, and a regulation sized football field will be marked off. The new paved road has made the building easily accessible, in a few minutes, to pedestrians, and motorists like the drive up on the hill for the wonderful view which it affords. To the North may be seen both the Clackamas and Willamette Rivers as they wind their way to the Columbia. The wooded hills with snow capped Mt. Hood and Mt. St. Helens for a back ground is a sight seldom seen; these are the sights that greet the eye of the student from the assembly room.

If there's anything worries a woman
 It's something she ought not to know
 But you bet she'll find out anyhow,
 If she gets the least kind of a show.
 Now, I'll wager ten cents to a nickel,
 This poem she's already read.
 I knew she'd get it somehow,

AFTER HIGH SCHOOL—WHAT?

For the American boy or girl who is ambitious to make the most of himself and his opportunities, there can be but one answer to that question—After High School, a college education. Never were the opportunities so great; never the call so urgent for trained, educated men and women to occupy the places of trust and leadership in the affairs of the nation.

FACIAL WIGGLE EXPLAINED

The lady's face was writhing under a white veil in a series of remarkable contortions. In one hand she carried an umbrella, in the other a brown paper parcel. Several passersby paused to watch her, some of them wondering whether she wanted coppers for the performance.

"Why", she exclaimed. "What on earth is the matter?"

"With me? Why nothing!"

"But you look ill! Your face—you were twisting it into all sorts of shapes."

The lady held out her hands—one with the paper parcel, and in the other the umbrella.

"I was only trying," she exclaimed "to work the edge of my veil down under my chin, dear," whereupon the crowd dispersed.
