

Directions: All of the following sentences have errors in apostrophe use. Correct the sentences by adding apostrophes in appropriate places and/or deleting them. Some sentences have more than one error.

1. The baby made it's displeasure known with a loud wail.
2. Carl's 1s look like 7s
3. Somebodys flash drive was left in the computer this morning.
4. My brother's-in-law car, a flashy BMW, is the talk of the neighborhood.
5. The childrens slides have a new coat of paint, thanks to student volunteers.
6. Someone stole Jacobs two cats yesterday.
7. Ones performance in school is not necessarily an indicator of ones success in life.
8. Im lovin it.
9. Clarebelle was everyones favorite clown.
10. Jans and Stuarts cars were in my driveway when I got home.
11. Carlson and Venturas book is a good introduction to urban land planning.
12. My twin sisters friends held a surprise birthday party for them.
13. The car blocking the driveway is her's.
14. My sister's-in-law knitted socks are a beautiful, eye-catching argyle.
15. They're casserole won first place in the Pillsbury Bake-off last year.
16. "Nobodys perfect," said Miranda, when her mother scolded her for skipping dinner.
17. Its unfair to judge everyone in a particular group by the behavior of a single individual.
18. The budget cuts of 90 and 91 lowered faculty morale a great deal.
19. You're friend left you a note earlier today.
20. Though women have gained many rights, their' rights still do not match mens.
21. Who's puppy won the prize for ugliest mutt?