

1. Please share with your group your notes and observations regarding the many settings in the text.
2. Brainstorm several key setting in the book, and, for each, brainstorm what you can about each one. Be sure to find 2-3 key quotes, including page numbers, for each setting. YOU MUST HUSTLE!

a. Setting: _____

Significant details, characteristics, and / or characterizations associated w that setting:

Key events that occur there:

Symbolic elements associated w that setting:

b. Setting: _____

Significant details, characteristics, and / or characterizations associated w that setting:

Key events that occur there:

Symbolic elements associated w that setting:

c. Setting: _____

Significant details, characteristics, and / or characterizations associated w that setting:

Key events that occur there:

Symbolic elements associated w that setting:

d. Setting: _____

Significant details, characteristics, and / or characterizations associated w that setting:

Key events that occur there:

Symbolic elements associated w that setting:

e. Setting: _____

Significant details, characteristics, and / or characterizations associated w that setting:

Key events that occur there:

Symbolic elements associated w that setting:

3. Draw an original map that shows these various settings, and their physical relationship to one another. Please do not use an existing map, your phone or any other non-you resource.