

LAUNCHING DISTANCE LEARNING FOR ALL

MARCH 12, 2020

Governor Kate Brown Closed Schools

Since that time, West Linn-Wilsonville has mobilized into action specific work groups to lead for designing social, emotional, and mental supports and supplemental learning for all our students during the school closure.

MARCH 17, 2020

Supplemental Education and Learning Supports

Governor Brown released Executive Order 20-08 closing schools until April 28 and directing districts to provide Supplemental Education and Learning Supports (SEALS). Since then, West Linn-Wilsonville staff have created supplemental learning for students to access on the district website.

MARCH 30, 2020

Teachers back to "Virtual Workspace"

Teachers and schools all across the state came back to a new school environment. Teachers spent their first days back learning Google Classroom and collaborating to create supplemental learning for students across West Linn-Wilsonville.

APRIL 1, 2020

Oregon plans for Distance Learning for ALL

The Oregon Department of Education releases new guidance for school districts across Oregon, shifting direction toward Distance Learning for All. This new directive of Distance Learning for All will focus on equity and access during this transition stage.

APRIL 13, 2020

West Linn-Wilsonville Launches Distance Learning

The West Linn-Wilsonville School District is creating plans to support all students to engage in Distance Learning beginning April 13. Targeted, grade level-specific supplemental learning will be available for students during the week of April 6 as we prepare to launch Distance Learning for All on April 13.