HOW TO APPLY

Submitting the application

* HOW TO APPLY

- + Common App
- + Directly to the Institution- these applications will be found directly on the admissions websites
- + UC and Cal State Applications

5

WHEN TO APPLY

What is the best deadline for you

* APPLICATION DEADLINES- WHEN TO APPLY

1 Early Action

- Great option for students who want an early admission decision without having to commit to a school.
- Usually due early-mid Nov but varies by school

2 Early Decision

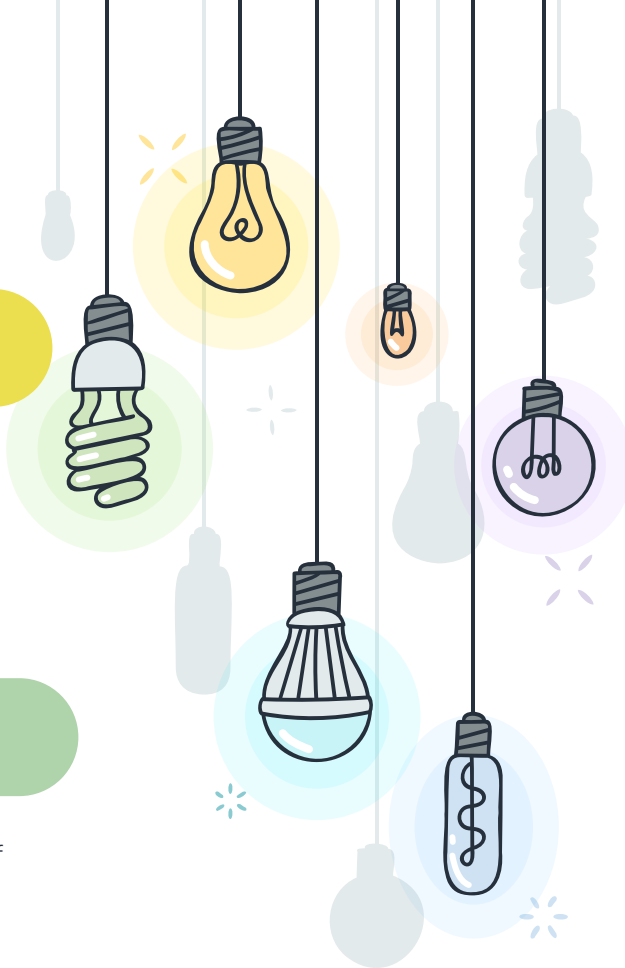

- Resembles early action, students apply to a college and hear back early
- Unlike early action, however, early decision comes with a binding agreement to enroll

3 Regular Decision

Typically around the beginning of January. Colleges usually send the acceptance letters sometime in March.

3 Rolling Admissions

Admission structure that receives and responds to college applications during a larger window of time

* IMPORTANT NOTES

- Do not wait for us to submit our materials. It is important that the colleges have your application before we send our additional documents.
- Online college applications and teacher/counselor evaluation information + transcripts can be submitted at separate times. As long as all are received by the due date, the student's application process will be complete!
- Use the Naviance links provided on the WLHS website to navigate the Naviance system
- Students and parents can check the status of teacher/counselor online submissions through the Naviance program.
- If you are requesting a fee waiver for a college application, please discuss this with your counselor!
- More info on scholarships; FAFSA changed their opening date from October to December
