Students at West Linn High School came from many different walks of life. Each child was innocently thrust into the high school mainstream, still trying to hold on to the juvenile lifestyle, quickly sectioned off into their individual groups. The Athletes, the Actors, Academic Achievers, the Socially accepted and not, struggled to find themselves for what they truly were. Not giving in to the norms of society these students saw firsthand what a jungle it is out there. Fighting against barriers of class and age rank, we stepped up to distinguish ourselves from other schools in the midst of racial turmoil, teenage angst, senseless shootings, political upheaval, and national adversity. However, none of these problems could stop the heroes of West Linn

High School. Aside from the every day ups and downs, the dreams and hopes of these overachievers were shaped and molded from each of the dreammakers at West Linn. As high school progressed, so did this group—learning the real meaning of life as we accept everyone. They were no longer just living under their parents' wings, but establishing someone for themselves—someone they could be happy living with for the rest of their lives. Then, it all began to come to an end. The happy moments, the friends, the careless drives in the sun with the wind in your hair, sucking the marrow out of life, would become only memories. But for these students those memories would go on forever. The good times, the bad times, the times we watched the t.v. and read the Newspaper and just Who's King of the Jungle?

The West Linn Lions

asked, "Why?" Questioning God, authority, and life itself as the crushing events of this world unfold. Despite each of these moments the students go on because they are each a King of the Jungle. With this royal lineage, each steps into the world holding a diploma in hand, and a dream in their hearts. The only barriers are their doubts and fears. As the world swallows them, let each keep the memories close and remember to be in the world, but not of the world as we accomplish that of Kings and Queens. For we, the Class of 1998 are each a King of the Jungle.

by John Hamblin

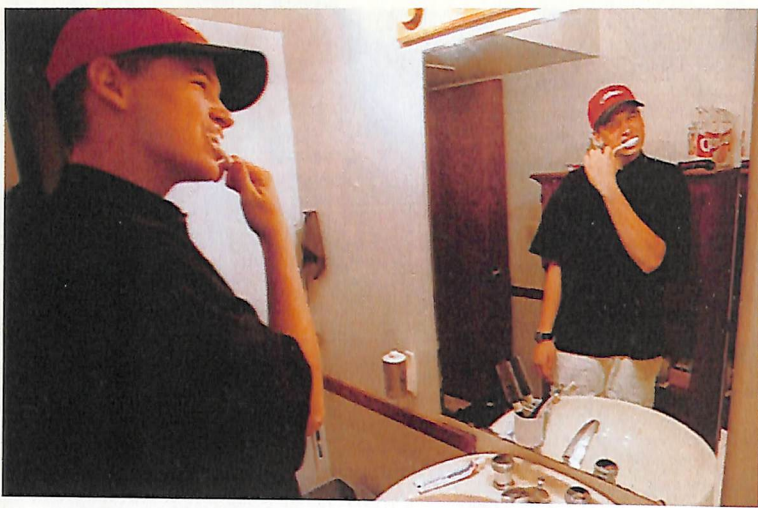

It's a Jungle Out There!

Students at West Linn High School never had to experience a dull moment. Every student's life was enriched by a class discussion, assembly, lunchtimes spent with friends, or other events, be they big or small. High school experiences taught us how to live life, rather than merely survive it. Student life was spiced up as we dressed up for formals, screamed at concerts, raved at parties, cheered at games, snapped photos, and just hung out. We grew to learn that, while it may be a jungle out there, with our hopes and dreams and our friends close at hand, we can be troopers and endure to the end.

TWILIGHT ZONE?!?!?!? Nope, it's just Twin Day during West Linn's annual Spirit Week. Along with everyone else in the school, Louis P. Moore and Matt Gesey dressed up strikingly similar.

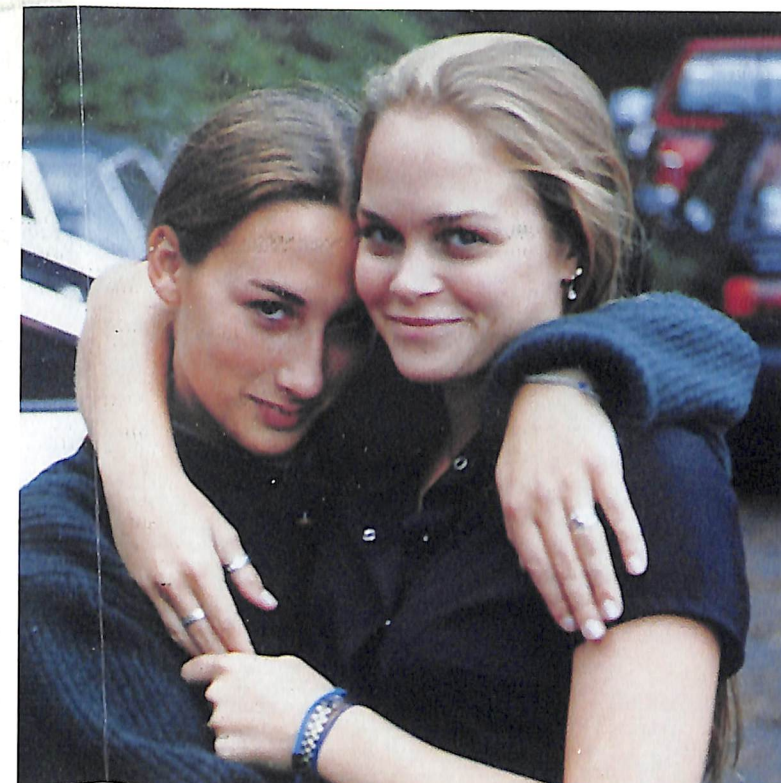

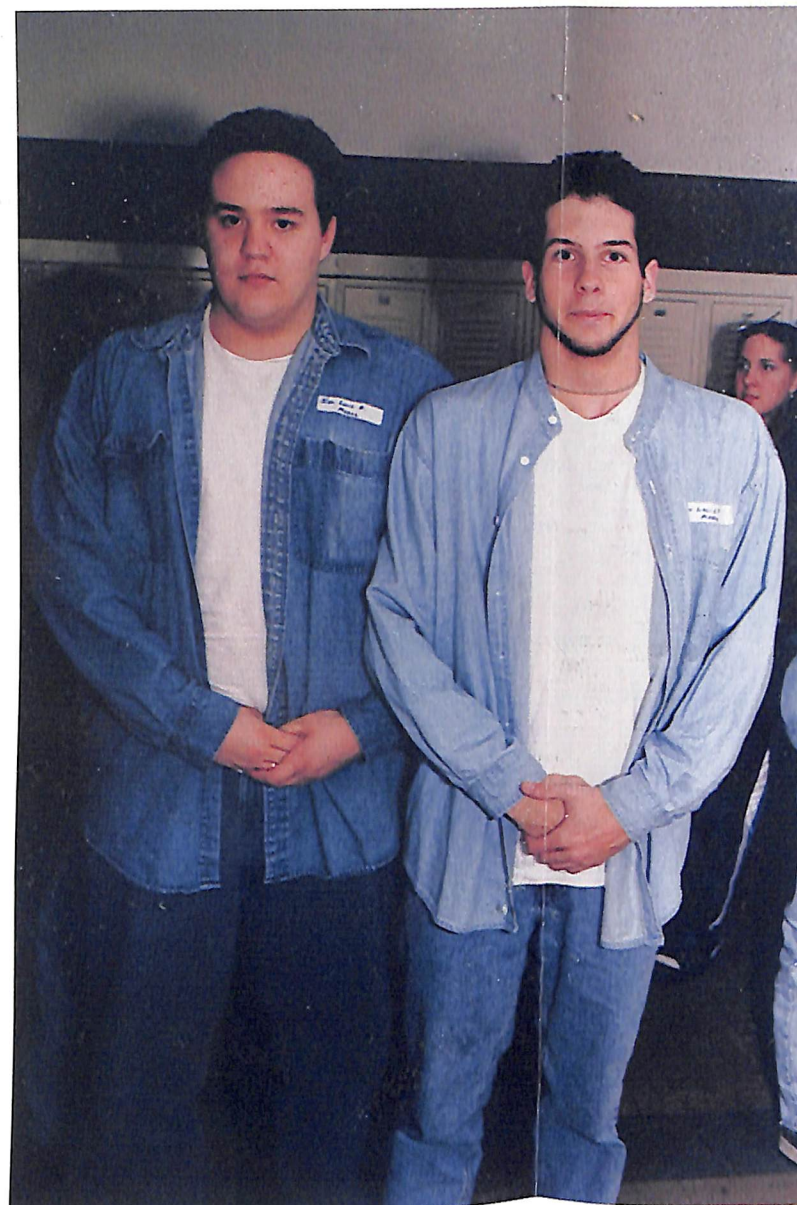

MIGHTY MOUSE, HERE TO SAVE THE DAY! Well, it's not that famous superhero, but it is Dan Johnston dressed up during Spirit Week. This year all the seniors were involved and pumped up, just like Dan's bulging biceps!

OH SUMMER DAY! Some days the Seniors just wanted to hang out and drink Starbucks in the Senior lot. Brittany Meyers and Missy Sobiesczyk decide to do just that.

Class of '98

TOO SEXY! Often the coolest seniors hang out in the Senior parking lot. Brittany Meyers and Elizabeth Cartwright show their stuff in the seniors very own place.

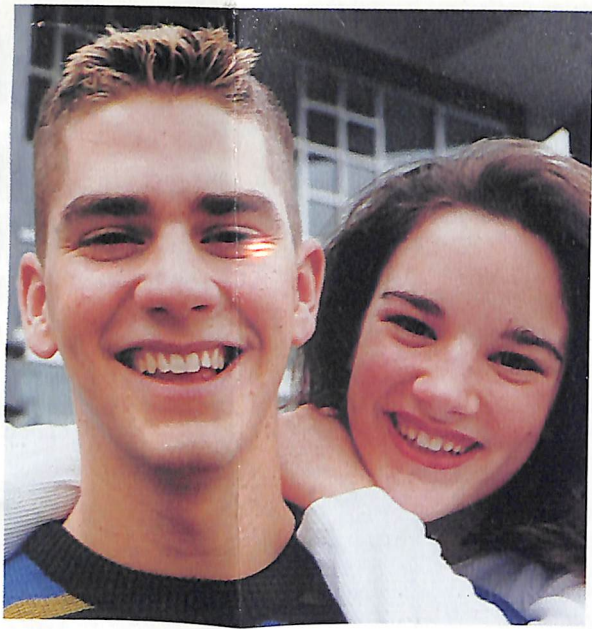

Class of '98

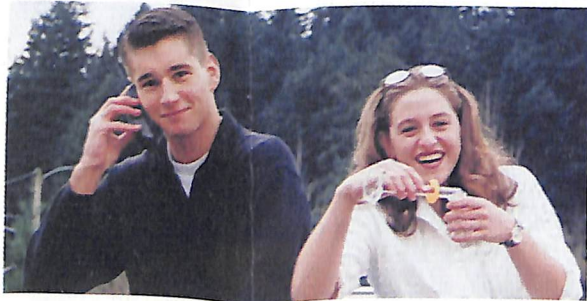

SHE'S GOT STYLE! This outrageous addition to the Class of '98 is Heather Enderlin. With a pose like that she really added some attitude to our school.

DOUBLE TAKE! If you think you're seeing twins, you're right. Myola Martinez and Laura Close don't miss a beat as they dress up for Twin Day.

Winter Ball: A Night To Remember

January 10: the big day was here. The dresses were on, hair was up, dinner reservations were made, pictures were being taken, but then reality hit and the unpredictable Oregon weather arrived. The dance was canceled and rescheduled for the following Saturday, January 17. Winter Ball '98 was an exciting, fun-filled night at Melody Lane Ball Room in Portland. Powderpuff 97!

West Linn High School's football team did very well this year, but who could forget the girls' Powderpuff teams? For the second year in a row, Homecoming Week provided for some great entertainment by having a girls touch football team for each grade. Many girls participated in the Powderpuff tradition this year.

The action heated up quite a bit this year, as many girls really got into the spirit of battle and domination. There was an especially heated contest between the sophomore and senior girls. Incredibly, by the time the dust settled and the blood stopped squirting through the air, there was only one injury, which came from a collision and injured an otherwise indestructible Alyssa Mcnown. Astoundingly, this did not put a damper on any team's vigor and lust for victory. After all was said and done, any Powderpuff player could tell you that they had an absolute blast playing Powderpuff this year.

However, we must also have the courage to stand up and ask 'Why?' We must, each of us, seek and search to find our own 'Truth.' Maintain and balance your trust in others, but do not blindly follow someone else's view of life and of our world."

SETTING II

cara quakenbush

I offer a story incomplete, to those who haven't yet written their own. Mine begins in a musty second story room, where the full moon casts an enchanting glow through the faded blinds, and spring melts fast away into summer. Here time is stopped. Two figures sit side by side on an old brown couch, together in the dark. Their illuminated shadows dance nearby on a paint chipped wall, the thin line that separates them from the world.

It has come to our attention that students are always trying to form clubs in order to bond with fellow students or to pursue admirable goals, or perhaps to be guaranteed a group photo like this in the yearbook. West Linn High School Theatre Season 1997-1998

Oct. 9-10-11-16-17-18 You Can't Take It With You by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman. Tony Kirby falls in love with Alice Sycamore, but the Sycamores are definitely on the weird side. When the quiet, conservative Kirbys pay a pre-wedding visit to the Sycamore madhouse, it shortly becomes clear that a union between the two families is doomed. Directed by Cheryl Cantwell.

November 7-8-13-14-15 The Company of Wayward Saints by George Herman. Performed in the ancient Commedia dell'Arte style, this Company presents a two act show commissioned by a wealthy patron. The first act is amusing slapstick, but the second act makes a serious point about the joys and fears all humankind has in common. Directed by Barbara Murray.

February 13-14-19-20-21-26-27-28 The Music Man. One of America's best-loved family musicals, the story of a slick traveling salesman who gets his foot caught in the door and a librarian who is too smart to be conned. Features a huge cast of salesmen, Iowa townsfolk, dancing teenagers, a barber-shop quartet, a matronly dance ensemble, and several cute kids. Directed by Nicki Hudson and Karen Mitchell.

May 8-9-14-15-16 Play On! by Rick Abbot. This is a play about a play—the story of a theatre group trying desperately to put on a play in spite of the constant interference of the most neurotic playwright ever born. Act I is the rehearsal, Act II is the disastrous final dress rehearsal, and Act III the equally catastrophic performance. Directed by Alan King. Main characters are: Cathy Berman, Rachel Smith, Jim Edwards, Annora Dickey, Kyrstyn Pixton, Bryce Adams, Logan Miller, Windy Borman, Jen Druback, and Aimee Greenfield.

May 22-23 The WLHS Children's Theatre Troupe Presents...this year, it's Shakespeare! Now in its nineteenth year, the troupe, featuring about fifteen of WLHS' advanced acting students, creates a 30-minute version of the Bard's Comedy of Errors.

May 28-29-30 Student-Directed One-Acts: A Man of Few Words, directed by Nathan LeRud. Words, Words, Words directed by Michael Ferguson. The Exquisite Corpse, written by Camille Cettina and directed by Brent Blackwell. Variations on the Death of Leon Trotsky, directed by Brian Ferguson.

Winning It All

■ ■ ■ Lion Football ■ ■ ■

For the first time since 1926, the varsity football team went undefeated in league. The record was on the line on the night of Oct. 31, when the Lions went head-to-head with the Lakridge Pacers.

At the end of the fourth quarter the game was tied 14-14 putting the game into overtime. In the end, West Linn won the game 21-14 to become the Three Rivers League Champions.

The attitude of the players is what held the team together, according to Coach Ron Chappell. "Our team captains set the tone for the team with hard work and enthusiasm."

Senior captains Garrett Stenson and Abram Umbras set the example for this year's team members by displaying a good work ethic and by showing others how to conduct themselves on and off the field.

The players were strong, fast, athletic and were considered by some to be the best skill position players in the state.

Even with some serious injuries, the Lions of 1997 prevailed. GREAT JOB LIONS!

The 1997-1998 boys soccer team made it all the way to the quarterfinals, but were stopped by a replacement goalie's lucky guess.

Boys Soccer

The boys soccer team had a great season. Although they were denied the Three Rivers League championship by Lakeridge, the boys still went on to do well in the playoffs.

The traditionally physical contest between Lakeridge and West Linn was a very exciting match. The boys had quite a crowd out to watch them battle for the Three Rivers League title. Fans were not disappointed by the extreme contact and controversial calls by the refs.

The boys soccer team went on from their disappointing loss to Lakeridge to make it to the quarterfinals. In an exciting game played at home against Canby on Nov. 8, the boys were cheered on by a very large crowd. In the first half, Canby almost scored twice, but was stopped by the superb efforts of junior goalie Eric Walunas.

With 17 minutes left in the first half, senior Will Rubeck scored on a header from a corner kick by sophomore David Emmett. In the second half, however, Canby picked the game up and scored to tie the game. Close to the end of regulation play, freshman Rory Gates was dropped to the ground by the Canby goalkeeper. After several minutes of debate, the referees finally decided to give the goalie a yellow card, but gave the ball back to Canby. Neither team was able to score in overtime, so it came down to a shootout. Both teams made their first four, but the Canby goalie made a lucky guess and was able to stop West Linn's fifth shot from going in. Canby made their fifth and final shot to end the season for the Lions.

Girls Soccer

Looks Bright!

The 1997-1998 girls soccer team made it all the way to the first round of the state playoffs. In the final game of the season, they lost to Barlow, 1-0 in double overtime.

Reflecting on the team's achievements, senior Whitney Mcclawhorn said, "I am really glad we made it to state this year because we were able to try to prove ourselves."

Barlow's soccer team placed first in their league. The final game against Barlow on Nov. 1, said a lot about the team, according to Mcclawhorn.

"We played our hearts out," said senior Kendra Krieg about their game against Barlow. "We had a tough year but we worked really hard to make it as far as we did," she said.

The home games were attended by many students, parents and supporters. The girls soccer games were full of speed, action and competitive fury. Many of the spectators said they got a rush just from watching the girls attack their opponents.

One of the highlights of the games was watching Krieg perform a cartwheel down the center of the field after each of West Linn's goals.

It was a great year for the senior girls on the team. Seniors on the team were Myola Martinez, Christina Baker, Whitney Mcclawhorn and Kendra Krieg. They leave behind an outstanding legacy to many talented underclassmen.

Future stars that were on the field this year include current freshman Crystal Price, and sophomores Anna Boergadine and Jenifer Christman. These girls will be looked to as the leaders and the standouts on the team next year.

Volleyball

Bump it, set it, spike it, that's the way we like it. UHHH!!!!

The WLHS Volleyball team had one of the best seasons in West Linn history. Through all the struggles and injuries the girls came out on top.

With a Three Rivers League Championship and an amazing second place in state behind them, the team could sit back and enjoy the memories of their season.

With close scores of 8-15, 15-12, 15-12 against eventual winner Central Catholic, victor members proved themselves as hard and determined workers. "I thought the girls played through everything perfectly. They did everything I could have asked of them," said Coach Jim Kirby. "It was totally my loss. It was my loss not theirs(the players). They were awesome, it was my fault," commented Kirby in spite of their second place finish.

As the season went on, the team grew stronger and more unified.

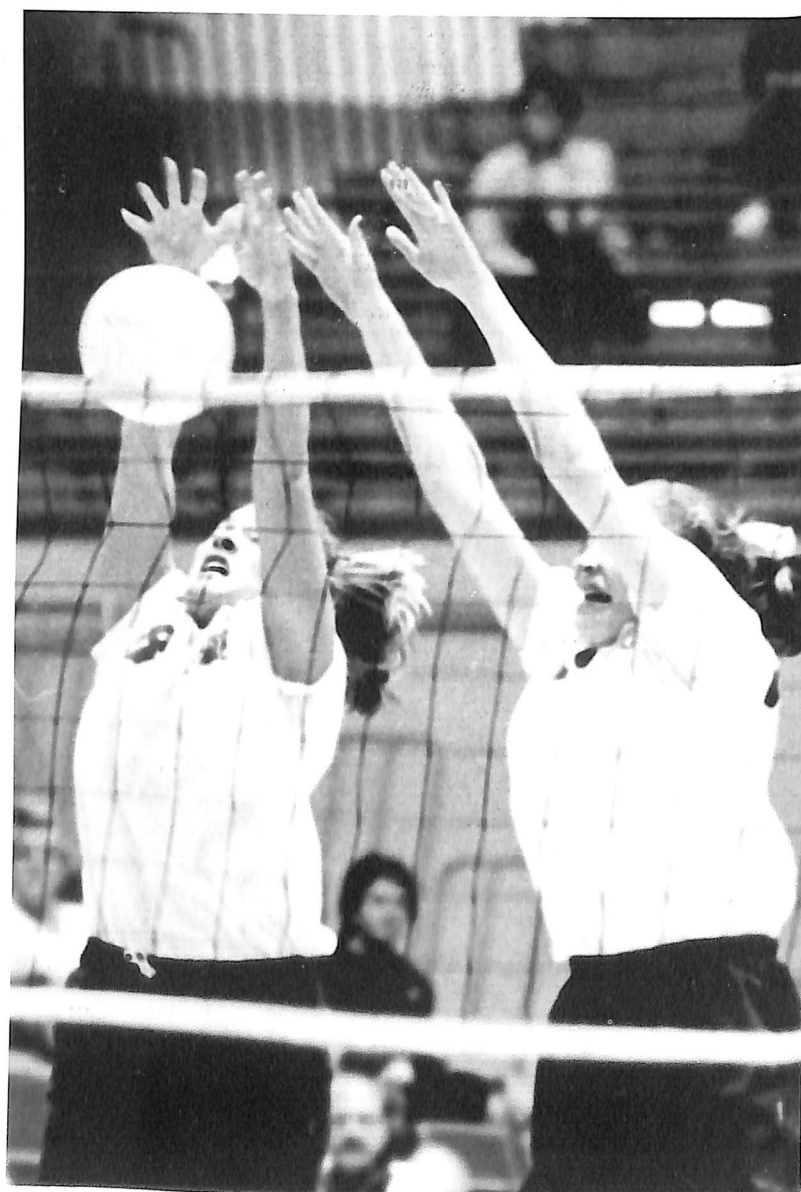

"Our last match was our best," said Whitney Arena.

Team members cheer on their team for victory. Katie Arena, Kelsey Adams and Elizabeth Lawrence jump high for their team to celebrate after gaining a point.

Katie Cunningham watches Elsa Lubisich spike a ball over the net, gaining a point toward victory.

Keep On Truckin'... FALL CHEERLEADING

"I've gotten so excited at the games that I've actually wet my pants!" Fall cheerleading captain, Holly Rommel said referring to the excitement of cheering for the 1997 league champion football team.

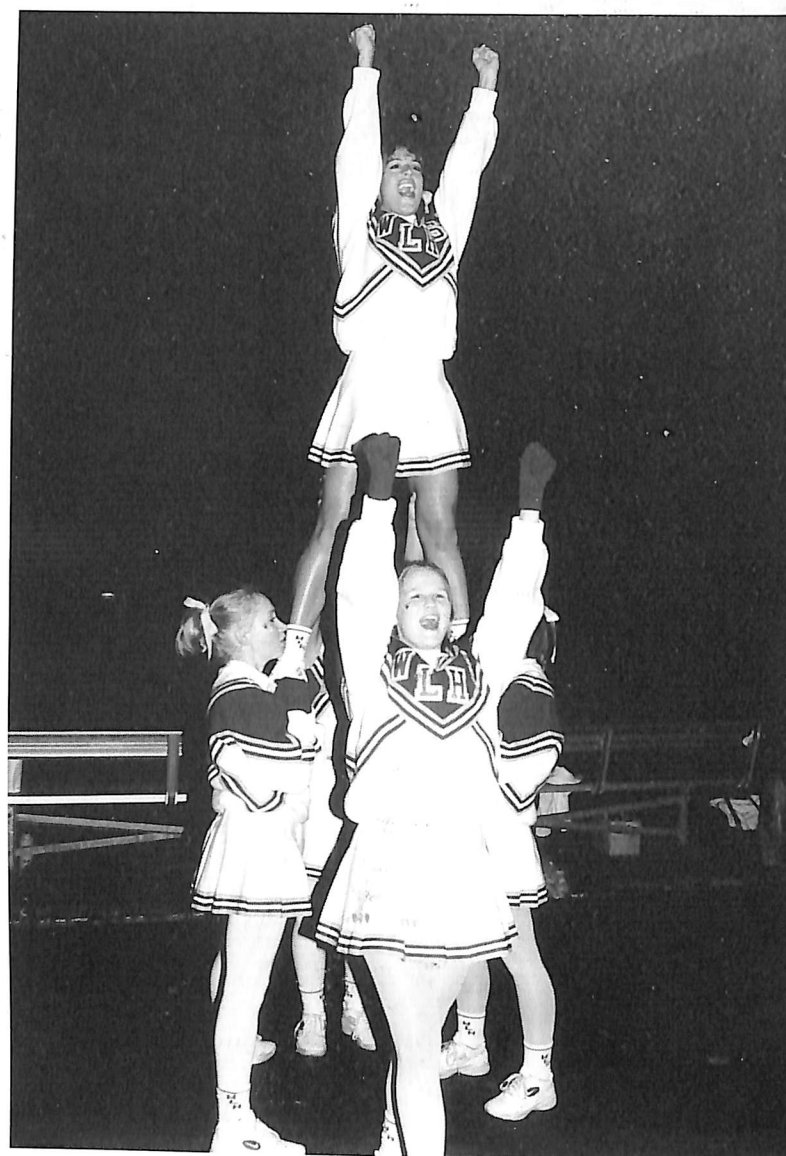

The fall cheerleading squad not only spent many dedicated hours supporting the football team, but attended all home volleyball matches and soccer games as well. "We love the spirit of the fans," said senior captain Liz Finley, "especially when they really get into the games."

The squad experienced many fun moments together this year. From dancing with the football players at assemblies, to potluck dinners before the games, each member ended the season with new memories.

Sophomore cheerleader, Ashley O'hollaren, said her most memorable moment was at practice when Holly Rommel and Emily Heinze attempted to climb the goal post. "It was funny just watching them, our whole squad was on the ground laughing."

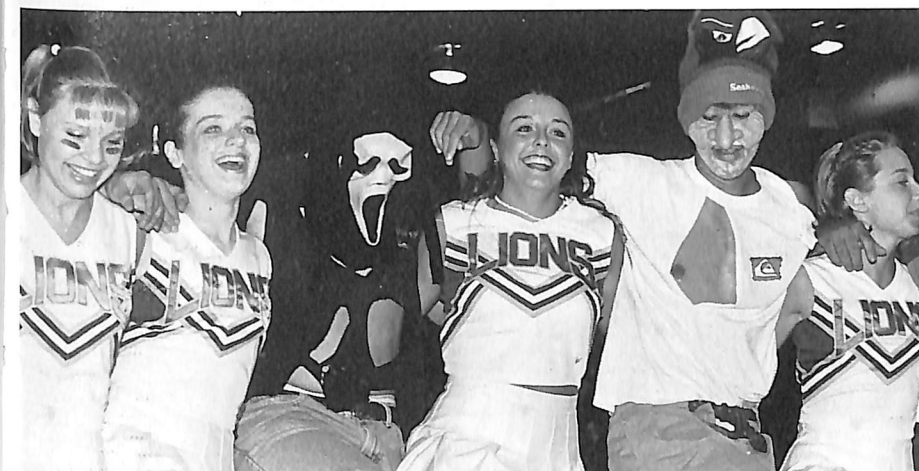

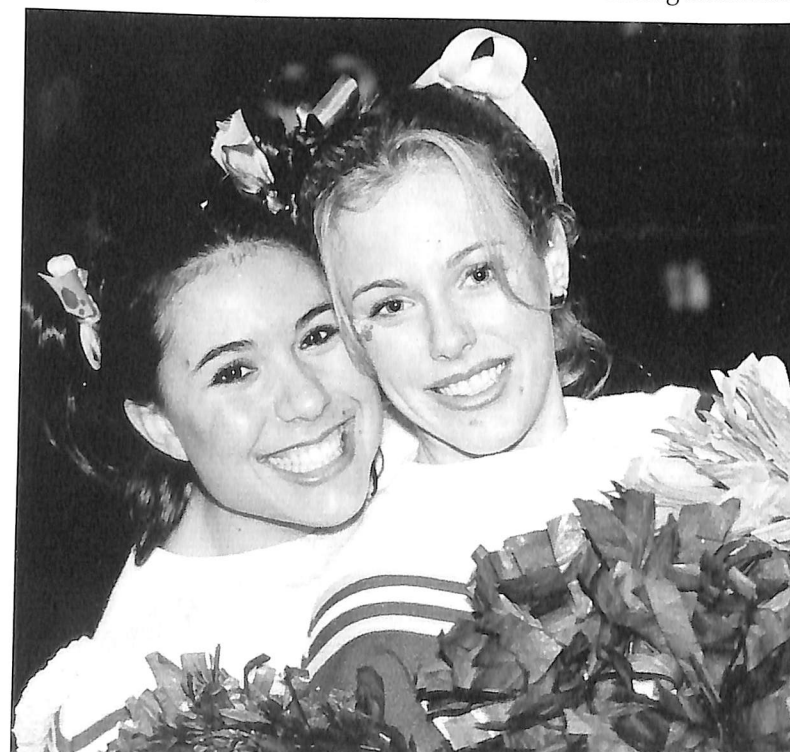

O'hollaren said that being a cheerleader means promoting spirit and getting the crowd positively involved in the games. With the amount of student body that attended the games in green and gold, whether it be body paint or hair ribbons, the cheerleaders knew they were going to have an involved crowd.

"As a cheerleader you always have to be on your toes, because you never know what could happen," said Holly Rommel.

Who were those people with the red medicine balls and weird rubber tubes? They were the Varsity and JV swim teams training. Swimming an hour at the Oregon City Pool Monday through Friday and dryland two days a week was all this team practiced to hold steady in league. A relatively young team with only four seniors, it placed third under Lake Oswego and Lakeridge in the first all league relay meet. It set the tone for the season.

In green coats, suits, caps, and goggles, the team prepared for districts. When the two-day district meet came, it was personal records and a lot of hard work that helped the team win third place with 277 points. Although no swimmers went to state, many competitors were very close. The top individual place holders were Blake Blackwell with third in 500 yard freestyle, Jim Hwang with a third in 100 yard breaststroke, and Heather Terry with third in 100 yard backstroke. Michael Hunter, Ben Arntz, Michael Bean and Erik Ternon of the 200 yard relay, fought hard for a second place finish in finals.

The Lions Dream Tonight

This season was a great one for the Debutantes. They started the season on a good note with a first place win at the Santiam competition. The team carried that feeling throughout the year through all the highs and lows. In the end the team was able to come together as a unit and take third in state. Though many thought they should have taken home the gold, they were still pretty proud of their third place win. The Royals too, were a very influential part of the dance team's overall success. They took home fourth at the West Linn Competition where the Debs performed a guy-girl exhibition dance with an 80's dance.

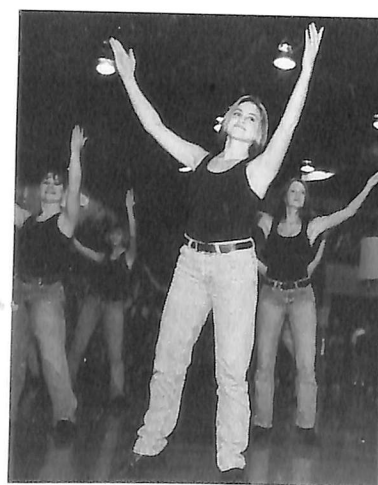

Liz Finley is lifted at a high point in the Debs routine.

Boys Track 98

State Champs... Not Once, Not Twice, But Three Times In A Row!!!

As if two state championships in a row wasn't enough, the defending state champion Lion boys track team, under Coach Jon Brickey, brought home its third consecutive state title from Eugene. The Lions were the fourth team in the history of Oregon to accomplish the feat of three-in-a-row. "It's not every day that kids get a chance to make history -- and to win three state championships in a row is amazing," said Brickey.

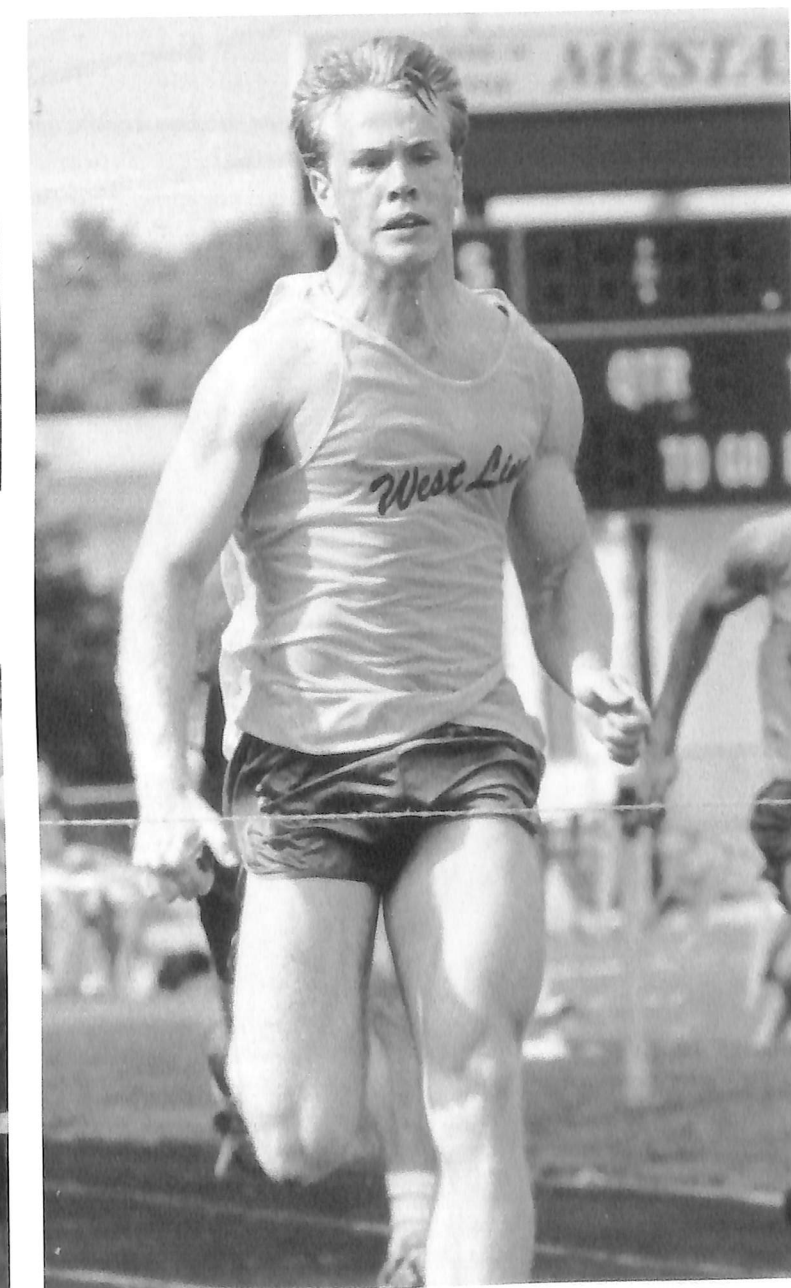

Senior Evan Kelty Earned 29.5 of the team's 44 points at state, winning the 200 meters, (for the third year in a row) and the 400 meters, while also placing second in the 100 meters. Kelty also anchored the third-place finish of the mile relay, which could not have succeeded without the work of senior Joe Van Meter, who also qualified for state in the 400, and sophomores Ben Metcalf, Matt Watson, and Charlie Way. Senior David Hodges contributed 10 points to the effort at state by placing third in the triple jump and fifth in the high jump. He also placed fourth at Districts in the pole vault. The other field events, with seniors Tim Sagawa and Ben Griswold, junior Mark Renne, and sophomores Rob Mamula and Ray Kauffman, were exceptionally strong this year, with the lowest finish at the district meet being fifth.

The Lions had an outstanding season and, once again, proved through their hard work their dedication to defending their state title.

Girls Track '98

While a record of 2-4 in league and a finish of sixth at Districts may not look all that great on paper, the 1998 girls track team, under new head coach Scott Spear, actually had a successful building year. Taking into account the fact that there were only six senior runners and three-quarters of the team had no track experience, Spear's statement that we "really didn't get blown away at any of our meets" proved the hard work and dedication of the young Lions.

Senior Sharon Cannon was the most consistent point-getter for the Lions throughout the year, dominating most of the league in the 1500 and 3000 meter runs. She placed third at Districts in the 1500 and second in the 3000, making her one of the track team's two state qualifiers. The other state qualifier for the Lions was freshman Michelle Donovan, who placed eighth at state in the 200 meters, setting the freshman all-time WLHS record list.

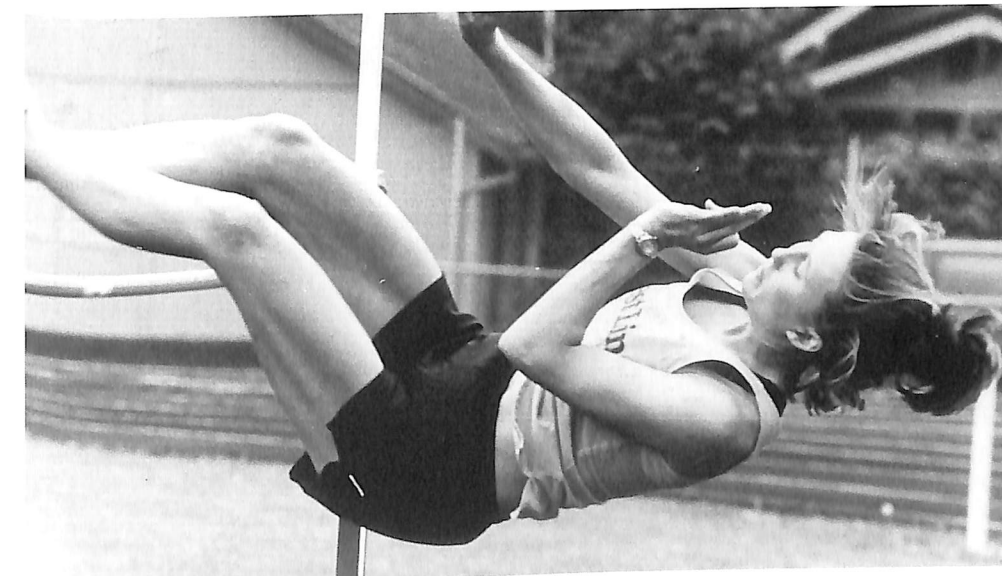

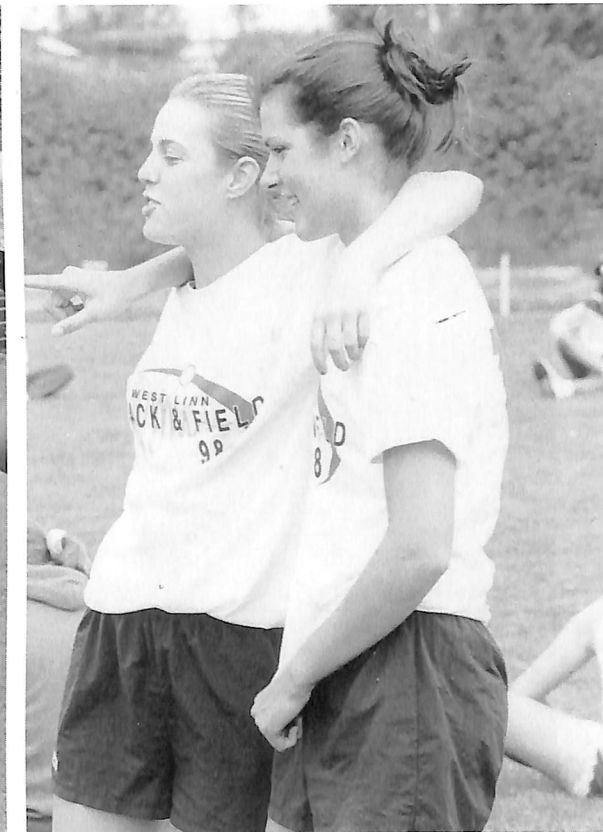

Three of the top runners, seniors Christina Baker and Allison Brown and junior Erin Hackbarth, all on the top ten all-time list for their events, suffered injuries that prevented them from achieving their personal and team goals. Those included defending their mile relay state title. Baker dominated the hurdles events during the season, regardless of her foot injury, and Brown continued to hold the second place on the all-time record list for the 200.

In the field events, freshman Julie Locke had an outstanding season, placing fifth at Districts in the discus and the shotput. Junior Heather Eskridge dominated the jumps, while sophomore Tina Allen led the team in the javelin and pole vault.

The Lions fought through this year's losses and came out on the other side a better, stronger team. Speed, skill, and perseverance were qualities that made this team.

The team lost seven seniors last year to graduation, according to Coach Ward Lewis, but a nucleus of captain Marc Piro, Daniel Groom, James Lee, Matt Sherman and Jason Sawyer led the team to a 6-3 (10-4) overall record. Lakeridge went undefeated, and West Linn tied Lake Oswego for second. The young Lions turned around a 7-1 home loss to Lake Oswego to post stunning upset, 5-3 at the LO courts. Victories by Oliver Dickston, Brent Boehner and Aaron Cook, Phil Cordell and Dan Groom, James Lee and Jesse Bollinger, and Matt Sherman and Will Lewis (a typical West Linn doubles; sweep) secured the victory in a long, hot match that featured four, three-setters. Brent Boehner and Aaron were the second seed in the district tournament, and they finished third behind the state ranked Lakeridge team and a newly created team of top singles players from Lake Oswego. In the state tournament, Boehner and Cook gained a rare victory against a South Eugene team before falling to Roseburg. Marc Piro played state ranked players throughout the year in the number one singles position, losing some matches but taking on the most skilled opponent so that West Linn depth could eventually win the victory. It was a great season with unusually dry weather, and lots of hope in the future of talented younger players coming up!

The 1998 Varsity girls tennis team finished a very successful season with a record of 10 wins and two losses in the Three Rivers League. That was good for second place in the league. The top singles players on the team were senior Kerry Lewis, junior Melissa Gold, and sophomore Krista Valentine. In doubles, the team was led by Kelsey Adams and Karolina Puk as firstst doubles and Lindsay Beals and Tiffany Fisher as second doubles. Although there were only two seniors in that group of seven players, the Lions were still one of the top dual match teams in the state. With strong playing in the district tournament, Kerry Lewis qualified for the State Tournament, as did the doubles team of Adams and Puk. With most of this team returning next year, look for West Linn to again be one of the best teams in the area!

Even if we knew that at top left were, Tracy Freeman, Dianne Epping, Dan Groom and Tim Segawa at a house of Reps. meeting and that at top right were Courtney Goldbeck, Cara Quackenbush and Megan Green hanging out in the Commons on the last day for seniors, then Laura Petrolino with a paw print. Mary Winter, Amelia Stark, Cathy Berman and Shawn McDevitt. Then, Josie Malet babysitting for a friend and finally, at bottom, a lunch group in an ellipse, but as it's already July 20 as this page is laid out, there is simply not enough time to tell you this. Sorry.

JUNIORS ARE READY TO RULE

Above: Kristin Sorber assists a fifth grade student with an art project in the mentor program, a grade school program that is contained within the high school. Right: Katie Ahern and Sara Henderson wait to perform in the Fall Fine Arts Assembly. The pair are involved in the dance program.

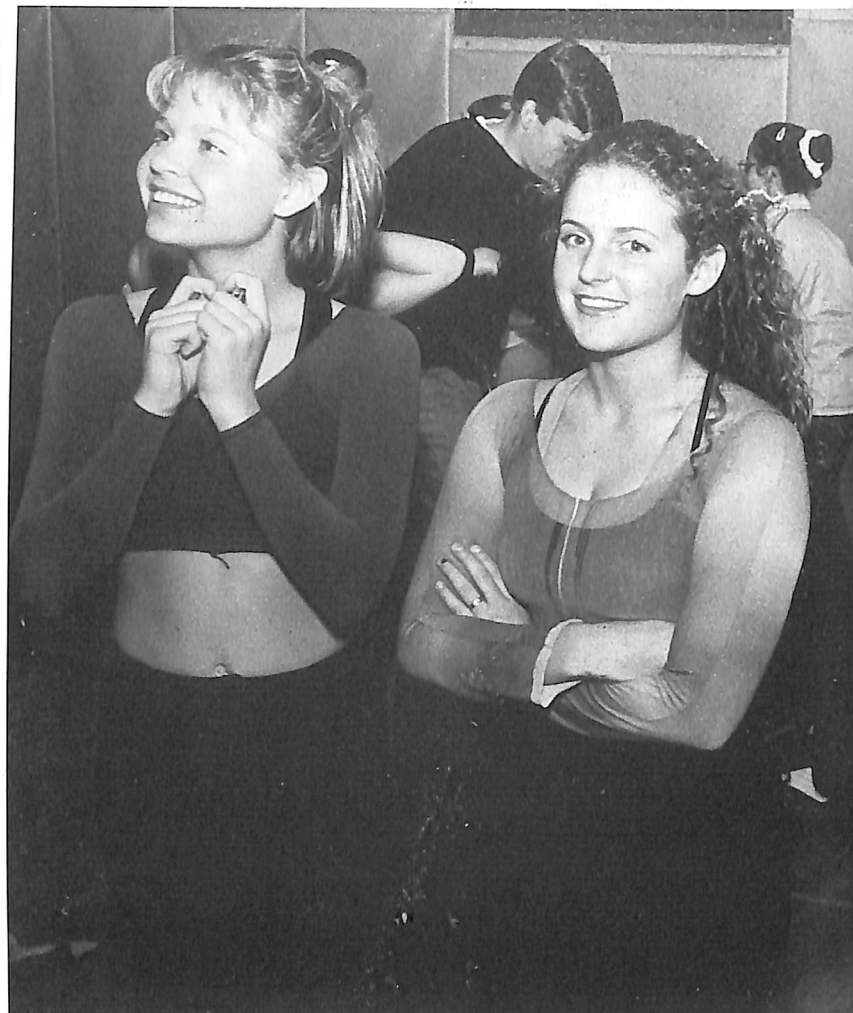

SENIORS ARE READY TO TAKE ON THE WORLD!

Far left: Yearbook staff members brainstorm design ideas. Because yearbook is no longer a class, students must give up their free time to put the book together.

Libba Lawrence seems to be deep in thought about the hard day of school she has ahead of her.

Jessica Troutman poses in front of the Guidance Office thinking about her love on Valentine's Day.

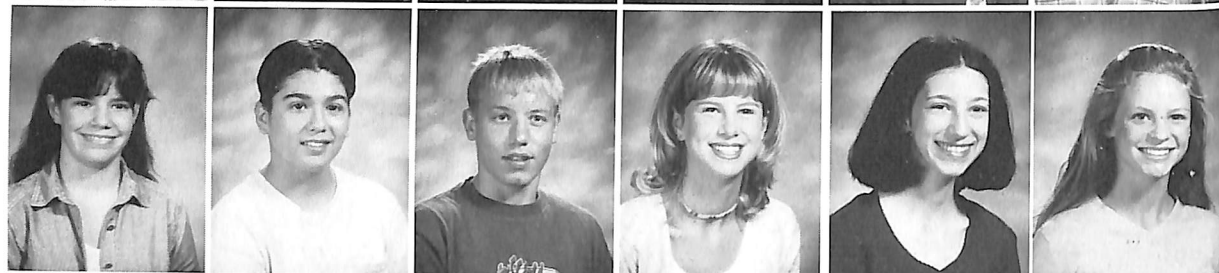

Left: Melia Espeleta shows spirit for Spirit Week as she dresses as an angel for Halloween.

Left: Telsha Jackson reads a magazine during her spare time. Above: Stephanie Worth, Nikki Lanier, and Carissa Tomsik show their Powder Puff spirit as they get ready for their big match against the seniors. Right: Jordan Rodgers develops film.

"Some people make ripples, Trisha made waves"

Trisha Nodurft

"I'm sitting here Trisha, all hours, all day. Part of my soul, as my soul you will stay."

-Christine

"Trisha was the spice in all of our lives. Her bold, energetic personality made everything more interesting and fun. Trisha was a beautiful person and a great friend. She touched the lives of everyone who knew her. Things will never be the same without our little munchkin, and without her understanding hugs when we are sad, I don't know how we will get by. Trisha, our hearts ache without you with us. We will always remember and love you. Until we meet again, your favorite Vegan."

"A single teardrop on a cheek, a prayer... knees gone weak. A pain never felt before, the shining spirit we all adore."

-Sara

"She does what she can, she lives for the moment, and that's who she is."

-Jessie

"I'll never forget her laugh, her smile, and the way she made others laugh too."

-Jeni

"Trisha had her own unique set of rules for life. Now that's she's gone I'm left wondering why we don't all live by them."

-Stephens

I'm free

Don't grieve me now, for I am free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all.

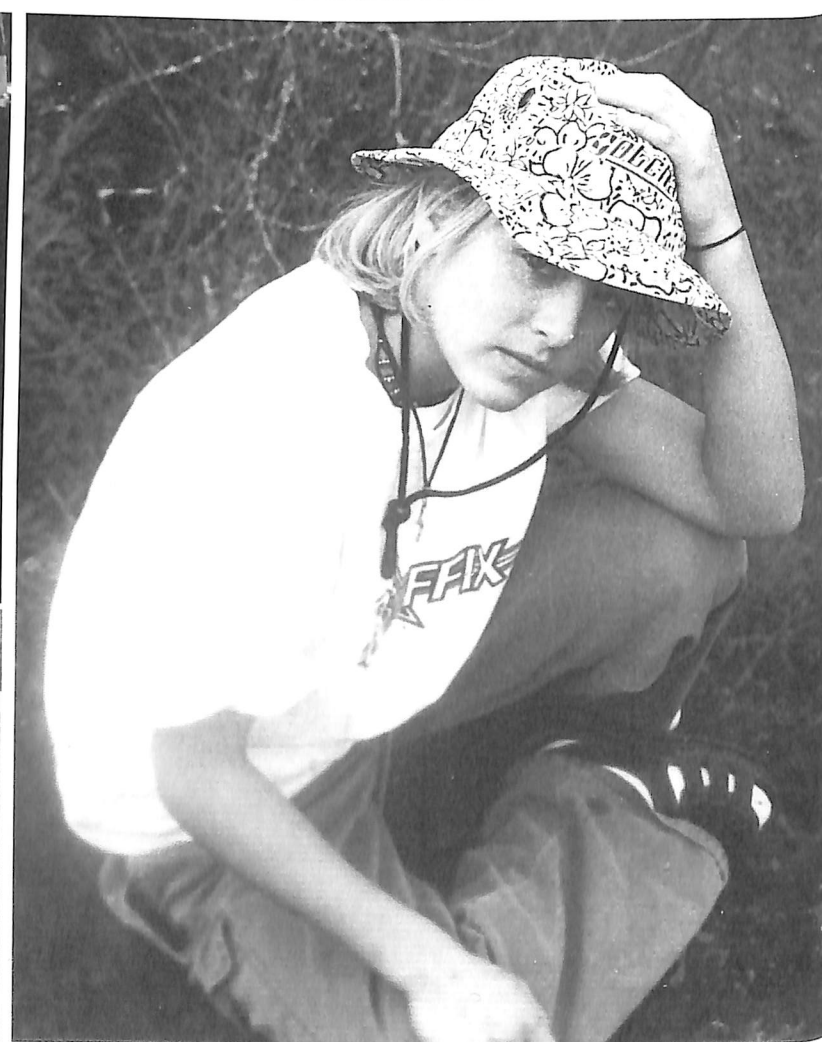

I could not stay another day,
to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found my peace at close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened by times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me,
I'm with God now ... I've been set free.

-author unknown-

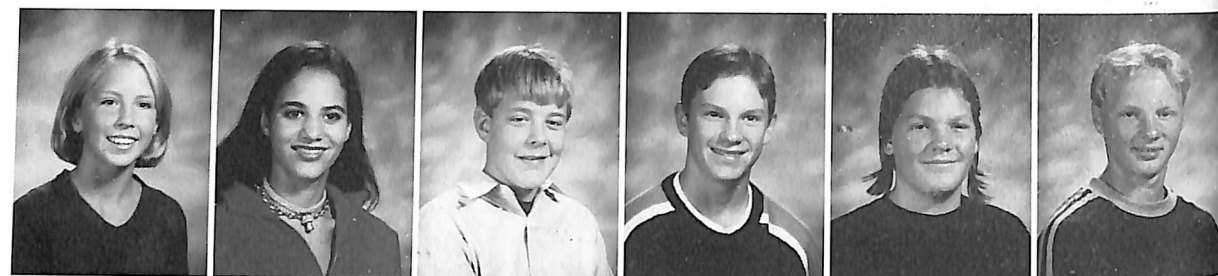

"I take risks not to escape life, but to prevent life from escaping me."

"...Far away, there in the sunshine are my highest aspirations. I may not reach them, but I can look up and see their beauty, believe in them, and try to follow where they lead."

Jonny,
The smile that won
our hearts, from the very first time we saw it, has brought us so much joy throught the years.
God truly blessed us when He chose us to be your parents.
As you set out to conquer
the world, remember-

There is no elevator to success only a stairway to be taken one step at a time.

Our love and prayers will be with you as you ascend each step.

We love you and are so very proud of you.

Love,
Mom & Dad

Nicole,

You made it! We are so proud of you.

Love,
Mom and Dad

To Our Dear Daughter Allison

You have matured into a fine, young woman of character and are now ready to enter the next phase in your life. The goals you have set for yourself are high indeed, but no matter, you will achieve them because you are a young woman who has an excellent sense of who you are; what you believe in; what standards you require of yourself and what your responsibilities are to yourself, your family and your community. You know the source of your strength and you draw upon it in every area of your life. You have endured and persevered through adversity and personal disappointments and have emerged stronger, more determined and with your ever-present smile. You are truly a woman of great courage, character, enthusiasm, and passion. We are infinitely proud of you in what you have become. You have been a great blessing to us and we love you very much.

Love, Mother and Dad

Willis,

Look to your future.

Love,
Mom & Dad

Breanne,

You'll always be our "little girl"

We love you,
Mom and Dad

Mel,

Those eyes...
That smile...
Those curls...

What a heartbreaker! Thank goodness some things never change.

Congratulations on growing up. Remember you control your happiness and destiny, so always be true to yourself.
You will always have our love and support.

Kisses and Hugs,
Mom, Dad, Amy &
Chrissy

Congratulations, Sarah!

You are done and on to the next of life's challenges!
We are so blessed to have you as our daughter and big sister. You have truly been both a good example and a great friend! We are so proud of you, and the young woman you have become!

We love you! We will miss you!
Mom & Dad, Rachel, Daniel, Micah, Nathanael, Hannah, & Abbie

"Mom... Dad... I'm done!"

Dear Marc,

You have filled our lives and hearts with joy and laughter. We are so proud of your accomplishments and hopeful for a bright future.
We will love you always,
Mom, Dad, and Monica

Brittney,
I will never begin to put into words how you changed my life when you came into this world. You have become a woman now, though you will always be my baby.
I'm so proud of you and like the woman you have become. With your independence, smile, humor, and drive oh ya and temper, go take on the world.
I love you,
MOM

Annie,

Your smile and wit is contagious.

As one door is closed today, a new one opens before you. Pause briefly at this threshold and know what you are leaving behind is good. Approach this new door with great confidence in your heart, for you have prepared well for this moment. Open each door with trust, holding your hopes and dreams very near... knowing that the world is waiting for the excellence and the love you carry with you. M.E. Miro

Kathryn,

Life is not so much a fight to be fought a game to be played a race to be run
a prize to be shared

It is more nearly God's will to be sought a course to be laid a work to be done
a gift to be shared

Dr. William Waul

Your presence brought us such hapiness and fulfillment.

Love, Mom & Dad

Brian,

There was not try, you did!
May the force be with you as you journey to

LaLa,
Time really does fly when you're having fun! It's hard to believe that you're on your way to college.
What a blessing and joy you are to us. We wish you continued success and hapiness at O.S.U!

We love you,

XOXO

Yearbook is all about giving time to record the history of a year in the life of West Linn High. It's about students getting married, sitting in the halls with friends, hugging during fire drills, smiling, counting tiles, welcoming foreign exchange students, you name it, If you are interested we're always looking for volunteers.

PEOPLE...PEOPLE...PEOPLE

"First of all, thanks to all who contributed your time and energy to this year's yearbook. I know it was immensely difficult to pull together without a class, and to sacrifice your time outside to be locked in this classroom. I know now that only a few students are willing to sacrifice their out of class time Well, I'm off to college now, so good luck.." John Hamblin (Editor)
