Does the patient's condition for which the employee is taking FMLA or OFLA leave fit into one of the following categories:

_______Because of the birth of a child;
_______Because of the placement of a child for adoption or foster care;
_______In order to care for a family member with a serious health condition;
_______For a serious health condition which prevents the person from performing job functions;
_______In order to care for a child with a condition requiring home care which does not meet the definition; of serious health condition and is not life threatening or terminal (OFLA leave only).
_______None of the above.
Other:____

1. Please describe the medical facts which support your certification, including a brief statement as to how the medical facts meet the criteria of one of these categories:

2. State the approximate date the condition commenced and the probable duration of the condition:

3. Will it be necessary for the employee to work only intermittently or to work on a less than full schedule as a result of the condition, including treatment described below?

4. If yes, give the probable duration:

5. If the condition is a chronic condition or pregnancy, state whether the patient is presently incapacitated and the likely duration and frequency of episodes of incapacity:

6. If additional treatments will be required for the condition, provide an estimate of the probable number of such treatments:

7. If the patient will be absent from work or other daily activities because of a treatment on an intermittent or part-time basis, please provide an estimate of the probable number and interval between such treatments, actual or estimated dates of treatment, if known, and period required for recovery, if any:

8. If any of these treatments will be provided by another provider of health services (e.g., physical therapist), please state the nature of the treatments:

9. If a regimen of continuing treatment by the patient is required under your supervision, provide a general description of such regimen (e.g., prescription drugs, physical therapy requiring special equipment):

10. If medical leave is required for the employee's absence from work because of the employee's own condition (including absences due to pregnancy or a chronic condition), is the employee unable to perform work of any kind?

11. If able to perform some work, is the employee unable to perform any one or more of the essential functions of the employee's job? (The employee or the employer should supply you with information about the essential job functions.) If yes, please list essential functions the employee is unable to perform:

12. If either #10 or #11 above applies, is it necessary for the employee to be absent from work for treatment?

13. If a leave is required to care for a family member of the employee with a serious health condition, does the patient require assistance for basic medical or personal needs or safety, or for transportation?

14. If no, would the employee's presence to provide psychological comfort be beneficial to the patient or assist in the patient's recovery?

15. If the patient will need care only intermittently or on a part-time basis, please indicate the probable duration of this need:
